Profile

I am Arshpreet Singh from Delta, BC. I am pursuing Diploma in Computer Studies at Langara College. I have a huge passion to learn programming with organized workflow, solving complex problems, creating elegant solutions to delight users and change my imagination into reality. I have been coding in different languages and work frames for more than 2 years and developed some real-life world web applications by applying new technologies. I keep complex technologies and dependencies in mind while implementing, organizing, and scaling projects.
